

■ Fee holiday for market makers

Following BlueNext's announcement regarding its new pricing package which is designed to reward its active members, LCH.Clearnet SA is pleased to announce that the fee holiday granted to Market Makers has been reactivated for 2009 as from 1st February 2009.

As a reminder, this fee holiday is offered to Markets Makers who post their trades in their market making positions account only.

By confirming this measure, LCH.Clearnet reinforces its will to support its partner exchanges in all their initiatives to develop new business.
