

■ Project: ESES, SOB and LCH.Clearnet Flux Bourse

>> Account Structure Black Window period

Euroclear and the market have taken the decision to launch the ESES platform on 19 January 2009 to allow members to make additional tests.

A key factor in the success of the launch is the stability of the environments. Therefore, the black window was started as planned in accordance with the timetable defined with Euroclear and will remain in place until 2 weeks after the launch.

The black window covers the following changes:

- Membership extension for CMF;
- Creation of new CMF;
- Modification of settlement agent;
- Creation of new settlement agent.

Should members have any questions or difficulties with these arrangements please contact your Product Implementation manager:
